3. DISCUSSION ITEMS

4. MANAGERS COMMENTS

-Chuck started by talking about Bridgett and him were planning to sit down on mid-year go over the payroll budget and all the other budgets. Going over the multiple budgets will be to make sure the Town is where they need to be with everything. Once everything is confirmed within budget and as it should Chuck and Bridgett will then see if there is a way to do more paving in the Spring or what have you.

-The Gas company is supposed to do paving on Jefferson Street by Christmas as long as the weather cooperates. Chuck said he would make sure to reach out to them to confirm when they would start.

-Smith Creek water line replacement project, the Town met with the Virginia department of Health division of clean drinking water, who the town received a grant from to do this project along with the Mayor Irvine – Thanked everyone for coming. He mentioned how great the Trail looks lit up and his experience he had when he was decorating. A young child had told him "Thank you sir, it's beautiful", and that comment made all the hard work worth it. Irvine talked about how December was a very busy month for Clifton Forge with the Kriskndl Mrkt, Christmas Parade, Light the Creek event, and much more. He finished by wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
